Invitation

Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues, Greetings from NARCHI DELHI!

NARCHI Delhi Chapter has been conferred the proud privilege to host the 15th World Congress NARCHI from 23-25 September 2022. The 'World Conference' is a grand academic event which is held every two years. It attracts participation from renowned national and international faculty who are stalwarts in their Fields. Faculty and delegates from other countries, specially neighboring South East Asian countries are also invited.

This year the theme of the conference "Quality RCH Care: Strengthening Linkages, Bridging Gaps" is dedicated to address the extremely divergent and challenging unmet reproductive health needs of women in India. Our focus will be to apprise the delegates with the latest updates and innovations in maternal and newborn care which will help them immensely in their daily practice.

The highlights of the Conference will be interactive symposiums, lively panel discussions, invigorating debates and stimulating quiz programs. The topics which will be covered include medical disorders in pregnancy, obstetric critical care, maternal and perinatal infections, postpartum care, patient safety and ethical issues in reproductive health and perinatal care. Pre and Post Congress hand on Workshops will be an integral part of this scientific feast, which will give an opportunity to the delegates to hone their clinical and surgical skills. Another major attraction of the conference will be the 'Convocation Ceremony' where fellowship of ICMCH (FICMCH) will be awarded to leading and deserving medical professionals.
